BENEFIT:

As a family or individual Member of CHADD you will join the nation's largest community of people who live with ADHD. Here is a place where others will really understand the challenges of your life with this disorder. You will help CHADD to advocate for national and local policies supporting children and adults with ADHD. The services your children receive at school, the accommodations available from employers, the coverage of your health insurance and so many other life issues are affected by our laws and regulations. CHADD helps to make sure your voice is heard. But there is so much more.

Through your Membership you will also receive:

"An Introduction to ADHD" This presentation is a great way to learn the basics of ADHD in adults and children.

Read Attention Magazine: Six times a year you will be sent a copy full of practical techniques, clinical updates and the newest findings on ADHD. Benefit from Attention 2.0, CHADD's online magazine.

Get Weekly Email Updates with the latest news, articles and information on ADHD. Connect with others concerned about ADHD through CHADD Exchange, our online communities.
